Dress Code: Exploits Ministry delegates are kindly requested to dress as the Lord's Ambassadors. This means for the ladies: preferably dresses and skirts (no low-cut sundresses and no sleeveless tops) and if you must wear slacks, be sure they are smartly tailored pants suits for ladies. . . but sloppy jeans and leggings without skirts are respectfully forbidden day or night. For men: although the weather is hot, please do not wear shorts. Middle Eastern men (unless very secular) do not bare their legs and therefore shorts are considered coarse. Also please wear neutral (non-religious) jewelry because we will be mixing with people of all religious persuasions. Please ask leadership to approve banners for prayer walks and the Jerusalem March. We are all moving towards a spirit of excellence in our spiritual lives, in the way we present ourselves and in our personal attitudes. Evenings can be cold - Please bring jackets or shawls or cardigans. Participants are asked not to visit currently sensitive areas in the Old City (Temple Mount) alone while you are part of our group, please check with Exploits Ministry / Ami Travel in reference to where and when you might want to go somewhere.
